“ I met Mark in 2009, and we remained close until he departed. He was a gentle giant, great rider, champion race car builder and driver, great friend, awesome father and truly devoted husband to Tammy. I can remember the night he met Tammy, and all the good times that we had as a motorcycle club. He will truly be missed by the community. I love you brother. You could always make the crowd laugh, and I know the real reason why you gave up the fight on Friday. Fall bike week was kicking off, and you figured that you would give it a good fly over on the way out. God Bless you brother. I will see you at the throne, and we will then recount the days of Daytona Bike Weeks, Myrtle Beach Race Track Stories and Myrtle Beach Bike Rallies, concerts, poker runs and everything else in between. I don't say good bye, I'll simply say I see you later.

“ One of Marks rare quality's was accepting those for who they are. not judging and just being a good friend. I didn't know Mark long but grateful for the Time I did. from my first trip to Daytona Biketober fest which turned out to be one of my best vacations. to my first NASCAR racer, where he took the time to explain what it was about. Thank you Mark for the great times, laughs, and just for being one of the coolest dudes I have had the pleasure to meet. will never be forgotten. Till we meet again my friend.

“ Our thoughts and prayers are going out to Mark's family. I've only known Mark for about the last 6 years, I met him at work but it turned into a friendship very quickly. I knew when I first hung around with him that he was someone very special!! He helped me build the car I always wanted to do (he did most of the work). I feel very lucky that our paths had crossed. He will be missed but never forgotton! Until we meet again God Bless you big guy!

“ Tammy I'll never forget the first time we met. All you talked about was moving down here with the love of your life. I never got to meet Mark but I could tell by the way you talked about him that he was a terrific guy. And for you to be that happy made me like him anyway. I love ya and have prayers for you. 🙏
