

Markham Daniel Peavey

December 25, 1961 - May 10, 2010

Tabor City, NC.....Mr. Markham Daniel Peavey, Sr., age 48, passed away Monday, May 10, 2010, in Cumberland County from injuries he received in an automobile accident.

Mr. Peavey was born December 25, 1961, in Whiteville, NC, a son of Josephine Jacobs Peavey and the late William Lawrence Peavey, Sr. He was in the construction business and attended Tabor City Church of God.

Survivors in addition to his mother of Tabor City are three sons: Markham Daniel Peavey, Jr. of Fayetteville, Michael Shane Lowder of Shallotte and William Edward Peavey of Fayetteville; one brother: William Lawrence "Bill" Peavey, Jr. of Siler City.

The family will receive friends Thursday, May 13, 2010, from 6-8 PM at Ward Funeral Home in Loris, SC, and at other times at the residence of the mother in Tabor City.

Graveside services will be held Friday, May 14, 2010, at 2 PM from the Ocean Woods Memorial Cemetery in Myrtle Beach with the Rev. Clark Whittington officiating.

Ward Funeral Home of Loris, 843-756-9273, is serving the family.

“ Markam was the lead singer for South and the Lawson Dixon Band. He was also a loyal friend you could depend on in a Tobacco field when it got too tough for most, he never wavered.

He was a good friend, a talented singer, and the one you wanted to be out front. He made all of us cooler than we would have been without him.

He had the gift.

I miss him terribly.
