“ I would like to extend my sincere condolences to the family of Marlene Kriner. When someone dies in the prime of their life, it can be difficult to understand and cope with the loss. As a Christian Minister, I\\'d like to impart some encouragement to you at this time of year. Jesus Christ came to the earth to preach about God\\'s Kingdom. He knew that by means of this kingdom, all those asleep in death will have the hope of a resurrection here on earth. This will be a time when loved ones will be reunited and the pain and sorrow of this time will be forgotten. I hope that the following scriptures will bring you comfort and hope. John 5:28,29, Revelation 21:3,4, Mathew 6:10 and Psalm 37:11. My prayers are with your family especially during this month.##imported-begin##Suzanne Lombado##imported-end##

“ One of the best measures of a person is the legacy they leave through their children. I did not personally know Marlene Kriner, but I do know her daughter and son-in-law, April and Jack Ladley, and using this measure I am certain Marlene was person of great character and love. In keeping with her legacy, the staff of the United States Air Force Academy Preparatory School is having a small grove of trees planted on public land in South Carolina in honor of Marlene, with the hope that the memory of a loving woman will shelter future generations.##imported-begin##Col Larry D.
