“ Please accept my condolence. I am so sorry for your loss. While nothing can remove your sorrow and pain except to have Miss Martha alive, strong, healthy, and in our midst again, please consider and take comfort, in that God gives us the hope of a resurrection- which can help us to cope and give us a measure comfort. Romans 15:4 says. “For all things that were written aforetime were written for our instruction, that through our endurance and through the comfort of the Scriptures we might have hope.” During Jesus ministry, Jehovah God empowered him to perform the resurrections of nine individuals- showing on a small scale- what is to come on a grand scale-in the near future! (John 5:25, 26, 28, 29). For now, may “the peace of God that excels all thought guard your hearts...” (Philippians 4:7) Again, you have my deepest sympathy.##imported-begin##Tammy Johnson##imported-end##

“ I understand this is a difficult time for family and friends. According to 2Corinthians 1:3,4 God is the Father of tender mercies and of all comfort, who comforts us in all our tribulations. God has provided us the hope of being reunited with our loved ones. Scriptures such as Hosea 13:14, John 5:28, 29, 1 Thessalonians 4:13,14 and Revelation 20:13 all tell of a resurrection. You can be confident that this will occur because Hebrews 6:18 lets us know that it is impossible for God to lie. It is my hope that you are strengthened by these thoughts. May you read them from your own copy of the bible.##imported-begin##T Alston##imported-end##
