“ I am very sorry for your loss. I am a cousin that lives in Columbia. I am Larry Knox's daughter. I do remember meeting Martha when Julia Knox passed away. I'm sure she was a beautiful and loving mother. Even though you don't know me, I just wanted to let you know how sorry I am.

“ We were so very sorry to learn of Martha's passing. She will be missed always. I remember her fondly and her fine jewelry store in myrtle beach that she shared with her beloved husband for many years. We would visit them when we were at the beach so many years ago. Shirley and all the family are in our prayers. My Aunt Dot (our Dad, (Allen Martin's) sister, was married to her brother, Sam. The Knox family has always been family to us.

“ What a kind, beautiful woman Martha was. She was always impeccably dressed, with perfect makeup. 42 years ago, you, Jill, and your mother, were helping with my wedding and reception. That is a memory that never leaves me. May you have many beautiful memories of your mother.
