“ I would like to express my sympathy to the family. I hope you are finding comfort in the time you spent with your dear loved one. Please find comfort in the hope expressed in the Bible at Revelation 21:3,4 where it tells us that mourning, pain, and death will be things of the past. I hope you find comfort in this hope. Feel free to email me to comment or if you have questions. Again, please accept my condolences.##imported-begin##Margaret##imported-end##

“ Dear Tullis: This is to express my condolences for the loss of Jo last week. I share your grief because my beloved wife, Jeanette, died on March 15 and was interned in Arlington Cemetery on March 29th. I know that you knew her because we played golf together several times with the Retired Military Group. The Arlington people are outstanding and will take care of all the details of Honor Guards. Bite your lip and you will not cry as much. Regards, Ed Munns, Col, USAF Ret##imported-begin##Ed Munns##imported-end##

“ Col Woodham and family, Please accept our sincere condolences for your loss. It has been a great honor to know Jo. Cathy and I fondly remember the good times at those early Member-Guest golf soirees under the tent. It has been heartwarming to witness all the great friends my parents have made in Myrtle Beach and you and Jo were there from the very beginning. We have really enjoyed listening to my parents talk about all the fun outings you've done together over the years. It is plain to see that Jo was an amazing woman who touched many hearts? ours included. Fondly, Don and Cathy Winter##imported-begin##Don & Cathy Winter##imported-end##

“ It has been quite awhile since I've played golf with Woodham Warriors. I often think of you and all the great times the group had together. Because of this group, I came to know indirectly of your wonderful wife "Jo". My wife actually played with her at interclub activities. I read of her death, and with sadness, I wish to extend to you and your family my thoughts and sympathy. Sincerely, Paul Noble from Pawleys Plantation###imported-begin##Paul Noble###imported-end##

“ Col. Woodham, Lisa and I, our children are so sorry for the loss of Jo. I thank you for always letting us be part of your family. As much as we visted and talked, I did not know all the things about Jo that I've read. How humble. I will miss her, although I can see and hear her now. “ Colonel Woodham and Family; I would like to extend my sorrow at the loss of your wife, and to your son's, their mother. I, we, in the Marine Corps family got to know, love, and respect her for being the "women" behind our Colonel. She assisted the Colonel in so many ways to insure that His Marine's and their families were taken care. Now she is with "the Man" and assisting Him in taking care of those Marines that have checked into their new command. She was, is, and will always be a part of our Marine Corps family and she will be missed very much. “ Dear Tullis and family, Jo was the first woman here @ Prestwick Ladies golf to welcome me and made me feel right at home. She was so beautiful, caring and most genuine. Jo and I bonded instantly as friends. She also I know... was a true Christian and that meant so much to me. I would always confide in her when I had a need. She always had the right answers and I looked up to her and followed what she told me. She was a woman that has affected us all in many different ways. She was truly the best friend anyone could have, a beautiful woman, of sincere honesty, Mother and wife. Jo is going to be sorely missed. I loved her dearly. She taught me a lot. She is now at peace and gone to her Triumphant land with our Lord Jesus Christ. We all we meet her again one day. Love, Annie Cotton and Phil##imported-begin##Ann&Phil##imported-end##
