

Martha M Carroll

February 11, 2009

Myrtle Beach, SC... Martha M. Carroll, widow of Daniel John Carroll of South Creek in Myrtle Beach National passed away peacefully in her sleep on Thursday, February 12, 2009. After a few years of declining health, she died happy; in NC on a trip to meet her beloved great-grandson. Martha was an avid shopper, amazing mother, doting grandmother and very proud new great-grandmother. She was loving, good natured and extremely giving! Martha joins her husband, Daniel John Carroll, her parents, Cathryn Mullin Russell and John Mullin and her grandson, Daniel Richard Sivertsen in heaven. Surviving are: Mark G. Carroll of Myrtle Beach; Kathleen Carroll of Myrtle Beach; Elizabeth and her husband, Stephen Kraus of Rochester, NY; Deborah and her husband, Jeff Daston of Washingtonville, NY; and Cathryn and her husband, Thomas J. Atkins IV of Washington, NJ. Martha is also survived by five grandchildren; Rebecca Carroll and her fiance' Jason C. McBride of Monroe, NC; Jason, Amanda and Alexandria Daston of Washingtonville, NY; TJ Atkins, V of Washington, NJ; and one great-grandson, Joshua Clinton McBride of Monroe, NC. She was also survived by a sister, Elizabeth Newman of Leawood, Kansas. She leaves behind countless other friends and family members whose lives she has touched forever. Visitation will be held from 1:00PM to 3:00PM and 6:00PM to 8:00PM on Monday February 16, 2009 at Goldfinch Funeral Home, Conway Chapel. A funeral mass will be said by Father Rick LaBreque at St. James Catholic Church February 17, 2009 at 2:30 PM. It was Martha's wish to be cremated. Her family requests that you honor her life in whatever way you see fit. Martha was always thinking of others. She would want those left behind to be happy.
