“ I am so sorry for you loss. The woman I knew when we were all much younger was one of the strongest fighters and lovers of justice that I've ever known. I know she is at peace and that you are as well. Blessing to all.

“ I'm so sorry for your loss. Please accept my deepest sympathy. May you find comfort from your memories, as well as God's word the bible. Why do people we love die? Romans 5:12 says: "That is why, just as through one man (Adam) sin entered into the world and death through sin, and thus death spread to all men because they had all sinned." How loving of God to promise what is found at Revelation 21:4 which says, "And he will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. The former things have passed away.”

“ Although I haven't seen Mary Frances or Peggy since our "lunch bunch" dining out group ended a few years ago, lately I have been thinking of the couple. I was planning to phone, but now it is too late. Please accept my condolences at the death of Mary Frances. I believe it was time for her to leave us.

Sincerely,
Marcia Howard

I was able to visit my Aunt Peggy and Mary Frances two years ago. It had been a long time since I had seen them. We had a nice visit and it was if we had never been apart. Mary Frances was a passionate. "for the right thing", equal rights for all, animal rights advocate, kind of person. She was a loyal and devoted friend and partner to my Aunt Peggy and my heartfelt sympathy goes out to her as she mourns her passing.
