“ Pop, I miss my mom more than ever. I wish we could have been together at that time as a family. It is a blessing that we had time together at the Outer Banks. I Love You, Mom. Say hello to Barb and Kenny for me. Chuck and I are holding on to each other for strength, but we miss you all dearly..

“ *Ray and Family Members,
Amy and I are deeply sorry for your loss of Mary Ann. She will always be remembered, by us, as a very sweet and caring woman, with a good sense of humor. May she be with her children and other family members in Heaven, forever in peace. God Bless you all, until you are reunited one day...*

“ So sorry for your lost Uncle Ray...Aunt Mary Ann is a wonderful woman who will always be in our hearts. I'll always remember the times staying at your place as a kid and listening to Elvis. Also the time I came down with Aunt Karen during the summer and stayed with you both. She will be truly missed...love you Aunt Mary Ann...you are another angel now to look over us all. Rest in peace...
