Mary Jane Callahan

Mary Jane Callahan age 94 died on Saturday, October 12, 2013 at Prince George Health Care in Georgetown, SC.

Born in McKees Rocks, PA, she was a daughter of the late Joseph and Loretta McGlone. Mary Jane worked in the purchasing department at Prentice Hall Book Publishing Co for 18 years. She loved the beach, traveling and reading but most of all she loved her family.

Survivors include her children Joyce C. Crompton and her husband Tim of Pawleys Island, James E. Callahan III of Pawleys Island; grandchildren Major Troy Callahan (USMC) and his wife Danielle V. of Cedar Point, NC, Carly Petrus and her husband Bradley of Charleston, Allison Crompton of Potomac Falls, VA, Craig Crompton and his wife Katie of Charleston, Cara Crompton of Pawleys Island; great grandchildren Brennan and Emma Callahan, Daisy and Darla Daigle and Madison Petrus. In addition to her parents Mary Jane was predeceased by her husband James E. Callahan Jr.

A Memorial Service will be held at Precious Blood of Christ Catholic Church at a later date.

In lieu of flowers, the family requests that memorial donations be made to either the Smith Medical Clinic, 116 Baskerville Rd, Pawleys Island, SC; or to the St. Francis Humane Society, 125 N. Ridge Rd, Georgetown, SC.

“Mary Jane was a lovely person and friend of my Mother, Doris Athey, who lives at the Lakes at Litchfield. Mary Jane always looked so elegant and dressed to the "nines"!! She loved to have her family for Sunday brunch at the Lakes and show the grandchildren off to the other residents!! All of us here at Heritage Plantation extend our deepest sympathies to our neighbors, Tim and Joyce Crompton and Jim Callahan, on the loss of their dear Mother.
