“ Mary and I were steady roommates at many CDA conventions and stayed up and chatted for hours. While I lie in bed to say my night prayers, Mary knelt down beside her bed to pray. She looked like an angel. I love her dearly. We worked together on many projects as I as her financial secretary for 4 years while she was Regent. The two of us traveled to our patrons Shrine on her feast day for retreat and she wrote a special note for each grandchild and laid it at the feet of St. Anne, Jesus' grandmother. Kiss Jesus for all your CDA sisters and watch over us from heaven.
