

Mary Cattaneo

October 16, 2009

PLEASE RUN WITH PICTURE Pawleys Island Mary Cattaneo Mary Cattaneo, 95, wife of the late Stephen A. Cattaneo, died Friday, October 16, 2009 at the Lakes at Litchfield where she had resided for the past eight years. Born January 1, 1914 in New York City, NY, she attended New Utrich High School and St. Joseph's College in Brooklyn, NY. For 14 years, admittedly the best years of her life, she taught English at the Eastern Military Academy on Long Island with the inspiration "to teach a child is to touch a life forever". In the 31 years following the death of her husband our own "Auntie Mame" traveled the world three times. Surviving are daughter, Angela (Curt) Mull; sons, Stephen (Jean) Cattaneo and John Cattaneo; sister, Yolanda Torquato; grandchildren, Elizabeth Seirmarco, Maryanne Cattaneo, Curt Mull, Laura Hales, Stephen Cattaneo, Stephen Mull, Eric Mull, Christina Wilcox, Paula Donahue, Teresa Cattaneo, Jonathan Mull and Mary-Angela French and 18 great grandchildren. A memorial service will be held 10:00 AM, Tuesday, October 20, 2009 at The Lakes at Litchfield. Memorials may be made to St. Jude's Hospital, 501 St. Jude's Place, Memphis, TN 38105. “Mary Cattaneo (known to me as “Nan”) was a wonderful grandmother. Nan was such a kind, gentle soul, always full of smiles. To me, she was a little social butterfly who loved to sing and dance. I remember the time when my husband, Manus, and I went to dinner with Nan at an Italian restaurant and she broke out singing in Italian. I understood none of the words, but absolutely loved watching her sing and dance. I enjoyed listening to her share stories of when she was younger, especially the one where she and her sister preferred walking across a golf course instead of staying on the designated path despite the danger mostly because it was a faster way to get where they were going. May we all be comforted that she now rests in peace with God and Pappa and that we had the great fortune to have known her. I will cherish the many wonderful memories I have of her. May God bless her and keep her and may God give great peace to her children. Love, Paula Cattaneo Donahue, Manus Donahue and Megan Donahue###imported-begin###Paula Donahue###imported-end##
