“Mary Jo was my Aunt and very special to me. After my father died a few years back, I made a trip once or twice a year to see family and she was always on my list. I spent alot of time in Conway over the years and Mary Jo was always one of the highlights of my time there. She always knew who i was no matter how long in between visits and always had a 100% loving hug for me. I always marveled at her memory and truley believed she would be around forever. My best memories of Mary Jo were listening to her recite nursery rhymes. Bah bah black sheep ..... I love you Mary Jo.

“*Miss Mary Jo was a VERY special Little Woman at Conway Manor. She was always sure to bring a smile to your face. Whether it was a "love pat" as you passed by her or a shake of her finger to correct you, she touched MANY lives. She will be greatly missed by all who were used to seeing her regularly. She had her "favorites", but was not a stranger to anyone. Our loss is Heavens gain, but we shall meet again.....
May God be with and comfort all Family & friends as they continue on this difficult journey.*

“ Mary Jo was a gift from God to the whole world. She has been my Aunt for 74 years and I learned very early to love her dearly. She use to chase Lavon , James and I regularly with a broom when we were bad and needed chasing. She would cook the very small birds Lavon and I use to hunt with our bb guns We would clean them and save them till we had enough to cook. I can still remember how they looked on the plate in the frig. They looked like very, very small turkeys to us. I surely have many loving memories of my Aunt. I loved to travel to visit with my brother Lloyd to see her and remember the warmth that she showed when she saw me.. She always asked about my wife and kids . There were long periods between visits sometime , but she never forgot us..I know she is with the rest of her family now and rejoicing. And I know in my heart that she will receive a full potion of joy from our Lord an Savior. All the other family members that have gone ahead will be so happy to see her. Mary Jo was truly an angel. She and Aunt Marie will surely have a great reunion. I will missed her greatlybut I will never forget her wonderful memories.
