“ To Joe and Family,
Ms. Mary was such a class act -- flashing that warm smile, baking her favorites for the Guild, and of course, her art talent was admired by everyone who knew her. Her sense of humor and quick wit were a delight. So its easy to say that whenever I think of Mary there is a smile on my face. Rest in peace, my friend.

“ Mary Dezzutti was the center of our universe. Not only have I lost a loving, caring mother-in-law, the world has lost a beautiful artist, whose works touched the hearts of all who had the privilege to see her gifts. She's setting up her paints & canvasas in Heaven, as we speak ❤️

“ I'll never forget sneaking down to the kitchen in the middle of the night to grab some moon cookies and grandma catching me. I was about 10 Year's old and thought I was gonna get in trouble. Grandma smiled and laughed and asked if I wanted some milk. She then told me to take another cookie and go to bed. She was always caring and light hearted. Grandma always had love to give and I'll never forget that!

“ I will never forget what an amazing inspiration and strong outgoing personality you had ...and a cook! Wow what a cook!! You always made sure we were fed, even if we just ate it was "want some dessert?" I'll never forget how sweet you were even when I was a small trouble maker. Standing on your stool or tip toes to give me a hug and call me a smart ass. I love you always grandma.

“ Mary was an amazing women and such an inspiration, rather it was her painting, cooking or smile. I loved when we would visit and she would share baking tips with me. I also loved watching my husband's face light up when we would pull up to their house for a visit. We will cherish our memories and Heaven has gained a new angel. We love you Mary

“ One of my favorite people in the whole world, I was always looking forward to that next visit, a chance to get one more big Grandma hug. I always remember coming over when I was younger and you would push down on my head, trying to make me shorter. You would tell me to "stop growing, your going to make me the short one again" and when I finally got taller than you, you would go grab your step stool to climb up and give me hug, that always made me laugh. I always bragged about your cooking, seemed like every time we would come to visit you would make enough food to feed an army. I also think Grandpa would eat about half of that while I watched in amazment. Baking cookies with you and playing games, and even after you caught me cheating at solitary you still played another game with me; there's nothing like a Grandmothers love. You and Grandpa have always been a part of my insperation to succeed, I always wanted to make you guys proud. Im so happy that I was able to share my family with you, and you even had a chance to see your great grandchildren grow. I love you more than words can tell, and you will always live in my heart.

Love You Grandma!
