“ we signed another book so i am pasting here for you pam and Johnny A grandmothers touch, a grandmothers kiss, a grieving grandson, your greatly missed. an empty house, an empty chair, a grandmothers love no longer there, a broken heart, tear filled eyes, another soul to fill the sky, many memories in my mind, some I laugh and some I cry, the time we shared the laughs we had, things I miss when I think of you, Doris, realizing hurts that all I have to hold on to are memories of what was once you, missing your laugh, I will never again hear,that is the reality that fills me with so much fear. No more smile on your face, no more warmth of your embrace, the last hug, the last kiss, the last goodbye leaves me with one last wish, to have you Doris here today, never to leave your grandson this way, a grandmothers touch, a grandmas kiss, a grieving grandson, YOUR GREATLY MISSED. always Jason Ray Jollie

----- September 14, 2005 Where do I begin, we go back 23 years now. I loved you as a Aunt thru marriage and even after I parted that family. You were always a straight shooter you told it like it was. I have so many memories of you and all the talks we had I will never forget. Your earthly family and friends have lost a mother, grandmother, family member and friend, but heaven has gained - oh so much more. And yes, were all aware your going to be watching us now. loving you always and keeping your memories dear to my heart.Diane Diane Boyette Aynor, SC -----

---- September 14, 2005 Johnny, Pam and family, Please accept my deepest sympathies at the passing of you dear wife and mother. What I have gathered in meeting you on Monday and visiting you Tuesday is that you all have a zeal for life. Thanks be to God that life has begun anew for Mary and for all who trust in Him. I'm praying and trusting that God's love will continue to dominate inwardly and resonate outwardly. Yours in Christ, Terry Carter-Hillcrest Cemetery Conway, SC -----

“ Johnny and Pam I sincerely regret to know the loss of Doris, she was such a loving lady and the word lady can describe what I think of her. Pam, I know you and I both brought many a laugh to each of our parents even though we picked on each other all the time. I do miss the wonderful times you and your parents spent at my parents home, it was a great joy having them and their conversations. “ I read of your loss and want to express my deepest sympathy. During these times it is especially important to draw close to God thru prayer. It is also a time to reflect on the promises that he has given us thru his word the Bible concerning the hope of seeing our loved ones again. I hope you find comfort in reading these scriptures. John 11:11-44, John 5:21, 28, 29, Acts 24:15 and Revelation 21:3, 4. My prayers are with your family.##imported-begin##Karen Cross##imported-end##

“ I wish I could be there to share in the celebration of Aunt Doris' life. She was a very caring and loving person. I'll bet there aren't very many people that knew Aunt Doris that don't have something that she crocheted especially for them. As a child, Aunt Doris used to make me beautiful vests and things to wear. One of my favorites was a beautiful red poncho. Pamela, I hope you kept them when I passed them down to you. They were so cool to wear! Uncle Johnny, I remember the year you were in Vietnam. Aunt Doris and Pamela lived right beside us. We were together doing things every day. My Mom and Aunt Doris worked so hard canning and freezing that summer so you would have plenty of "Horry County grown" vegetables to eat when you got home! I remember how excited we all got whenever you sent a letter. Your letters were shared by all of us. Aunt Doris even let us accompany her to Charleston to pick you up when you came home. What fun times we all shared! Aunt Doris has finished her time here on Earth and even though we all are going to miss her, she is finally at peace after a very long battle. May God be with you all and bring you comfort in the days ahead. Love, Sissy##imported-begin##Phyllis Jollie Freeman##imported-end##

“ God called you home at the twinkling of an eye there was no time to say goodbye. Death is a heartache that no one can heal memories are something no one can steal. Please know how sad we are for such a loss. Aunt Doris was such a wonderful and special Aunt and We will deeply miss her so much. I will always remember all the things she did for me always giving her straight forward answers no matter what any one else thought. She always made sure that we always got fresh vegetables when we left to go home. I will always remember those wonderful pot roast that was so delicious. It makes my mouth water right now. She always made us feel so welcome in her home, always seeing that we went to go get some kind of seafood. I will always treasure my times that I spent with Aunt Doris and Uncle Johnny and I am so glad that I have these memories that no one can take away from me. All our Love, Gary and Lennie###imported-begin##Linda and Gary Cason###imported-end##

“ We will miss you soooo much!!!! What a special aunt you were, anyone who would make a quilt for you has to have alot of love for you! We have some wonderful memories of the times we spent together, especially staying at your home and sleeping on the floor as adults, because none of us would take the bed. Our thoughts and prayers are with all of you, we know that one day we will be reunited in heaven.... Love, Ernie & Patty IPeter 5:7###imported-begin##Ernie & Patty###imported-end##
