“ I learned of Mrs. Ellerbe's passing from the Clinton Chronicle and am so sorry to hear of this. I haven't seen her in many years, but I remember her always greeting me at the store with a big, warm smile. Bill & I went to high school together and Mary always seem to take an interest in what Bill's classmates were doing. Please accept condolences from my family.

“ Although I did not know Mary, I work with Marcie at Coastal Carolina University and Makayla is in one of my classes. I have been saddened by Mary's illness. Please know that my thoughts and prayers are with your family at this time. I hope that you were able to find joy during the Thanksgiving holiday as you supported one another and Mary.

“ We are so glad to have met lovely Mary. She was a true delight to be around. I always enjoyed talking with her and enjoying her culinary delights! She had a way of making everyone feel special and important. Always had a helpful tip or compliment. She will truly be missed by so many. I am sorry for the loss to everyone. God Bless.

“ Mary and I clicked from the first time I walked the beach with Mary and my brother, John. She became family. We could joke and tease, but also talk about heartfelt things on our minds. Her love of family and ours meshed. We enjoyed dinner at Russel's with Zach, in whom she had great love and pride. Mary and I enjoyed our naughty selves too. My heartfelt condolences to all the Ellerbe Family. I hope the Kay and Ellerbe Family will meet again enjoy our remembrances of the full of life woman who taught us all how to live life to its fullest. Much Love, Jane Kay

“Mary was pure pleasure, delight, energy, and sunshine. We would share our love for sunrise walks on the beach from Springmaid to State Park pier both in person and by phone when I could not physically be there. We shared love of family, life, beach, natural beauty and wonder and a pure enjoyment and love for each other's company.

My dear Mary, I'll miss our walks and you will be in my heart with each beach walk I take and through the meadow we both loved.

With Much Love, John Kay
