“ All my best to Judy, Ralph, Greg and Jeff. Mary Ann was my "adopted" cousin and her parents, Ann & Vandal, were my god-parents. I'll remember her terrific smile and hearty laugh. She always held her own with the Ratiu gals, as each one competed to get a word in over the others. She will be missed.###imported-begin###Michael Chase###imported-end##

“ Mary Ann was a very special caring person and a great loss to our group of cruisers, especially Buddy, who she seemed to always call Sonny! My wife loved spending time with her in the Casino's and Bingo, she knew that as long as she was with us on those cruises, she had nothing to worry about. Our hearts and prayers go out to her lifelong partner Ralph, who will surely miss the love, companionship and the hurdles they faced together in this life here on earth. Don't be too sad Ralph, Mary Ann is now in a place where there is no sickness and none of the problems we face. SHE WILL BE THERE TO GREET YOU WHEN GOD CALLS YOU HOME!!!##imported-begin##Lou and Liz Krieger##imported-end##

“ I am sorry to hear of your loss. Death is an enemy to us all. It is especially an enemy when it strike someone dear to us. God is more powerful than death and he promise to get rid of this enemy once and for all. The Bible teaches: "As the last enemy, death will be brought to nothing." (1Corinthians 15:26) Then the resurrection will take place for John 5:28 reads: "Marvel not at this, for the hour is coming when all that are in the graves shall hear his voice and come forth." I hope this message will comfort you in your time of loss.##imported-begin##R Brown##imported-end##
