Tribute Wall

“ I would like to offer my sympathies for the loss of Mrs. Powell. Losing a loved one is very difficult. I have found that comfort and support are needed at such times. It has been very helpful to me to know that Almighty God is always available to turn to for strength. Ps. 55:22 lets us know that we can throw our burdens on him and he will sustain us. May you do the same and remember that there is a hope for all our loved ones who have passed on in death, according to Acts 24:15, we are told of a resurrection for the both those who are righteous and unrighteous. Be encouraged by these verses and look forward to seeing your loved ones again in the future!##imported-begin##F. Allston##imported-end##
