“ I will always remember summer days she stayed with us, picking black berries behind Ned's house and Sunday gathering at Grandma's house. I remember her as a young girl, full of life and goodness. May you all be comforted by a life well lived. Homer and Marilyn Jones.

“Kim, Michael and Families.
Words cannot express how I feel on the passing of your mother and a dear friend and neighbor. What wonderful memories I have of our living across from each other in Pawleys Planation. We shared many laughs and tears thru the years. What a joy to have known your mother and I will miss her very much. RIP dear Jane.
Love
