“ Mary Ann...

I still love you after all these years! You and I spent a lot of time together at the store. I would keep you company and we would keep the store open until closing time. Later during our friendship, we went to a Football Game and the Movies... I do not remember much about the Football Game and I do not think I could watch GREASE anymore after the seventh time. I enjoyed growing up and our friendship together. I always wished you the best; however, we as humans do not understand why you were taken so early. As hard as it may be, we will remember you always... and carry on, as you would have wanted. I pray your family and friends will be at peace during this time of darkness and know the Lord is in control. With Love My Dear Friend... Lynn
