“ I would like to extend my sincerest sympathies to the family of Mary Albright. Death is a devastating experience. Whether Mary was your mother, grandmother, sister or friend the effect of her death is different but unique to the relationship you had with her. It leaves a void in your lives that will be difficult to fill. We long to be with our family and when death takes one of them away from us, we miss them very much. This is understandable because we were created with the desire to live forever. At Ecclesiastes 3:11 the Bible tells us,? God has put time indefinite into our hearts. God's word the Bible is a great source of comfort because it helps us to understand a promise God made to us through his son, Jesus Christ. That promise is that of a resurrection of all those who have fallen asleep in death. When Jesus spoke about the condition of the dead, He did so with regard to Lazarus, a man whom he knew well and who had died. Jesus compared death to rest and sleep. Lazarus was at rest as if in a deep sleep. Interestingly the word "resurrection" literally means a standing up again. And that is exactly what Jesus did for Lazarus when he went to visit Lazarus' family. This is what Jesus Christ's own resurrection guarantees Acts 17:31 that we can be confident of a resurrection for Mary. At John 5: 28,29 we read: "Do not marvel at this because the hour is coming when all those in the memorial tombs will hear my voice and come out." May this hope of the resurrection give you comfort and encouragement. My prayers are with your family.##imported-begin##Suzanne Lombardo##imported-end##
