

Mary Meier

March 21, 2005

Mary Booth Meier, a native and former resident of Conway, age 55, died Monday, March 21, 2005 at her residence following an illness. Mrs. Meier was born in Conway, a daughter of Ruth V. Booth and the late James T. Booth. She graduated from Limestone College before a career as an award winning news reporter for two newspapers and then specializing in public relations for several companies in Charlotte, including Belk Store Services and Southern Shows, Inc. Surviving in addition to her mother of Darlington, SC are her husband of 25 years, George Meier of Charlotte; her daughters Kate and Jan; a sister Jan Jones and her husband L.E. "Bud" of Pawleys Island; a brother Robert Booth and his wife Irene of Conway and their children and families. A memorial service will be held 2:00 PM Thursday from Goldfinch Funeral Home, Conway Chapel. The family will receive friends after the service. Burial will be private.

Tribute Wall

“ My thoughts and prayers are with Mary's family. We shared many high school experiences and she was always a joy.##imported-begin##Mitchell Merritt##imported-end##

March 25, 2005 at 12:00 AM

“ Please accept my deepest regrets. Mary was my 1st grade sweetheart! I had classes with her through 5th grade. I still have her 1st grade picture if you would like to have it.##imported-begin##Artie Greene##imported-end##

March 25, 2005 at 12:00 AM

“ Close friends to Mary Booths sister Jan Jones. Very sorry for your loss. May God give you the strength to understand we will all be in the kingdom of God someday and will see Mary Booth their .##imported-begin##Pat & Rhett Roman##imported-end##

March 24, 2005 at 12:00 AM

“ To Mary's Family, I am so sorry to hear this news. I was a friend of Mary's in high school. I last saw her at the 20th high school reunion. She was happy and very proud of her family. Please accept my deepest sympathy.##imported-begin##Julie Stackhouse Eggen##imported-end##

March 24, 2005 at 12:00 AM