“ Mary Ann and Jerry were my Popa and Nanas best friends. Their family became our family. My grandparents passed away several years ago. Just a few months ago there was a knock at our door; I opened it. There stood Jerry and Mary Ann. With tears in my eyes I hugged them and said, "It's like popa and Nana came to vist!" I enjoyed our visit so much, I went to work late. Mary Ann was such an example of what a Christian woman should be. She loved God, her family, her and her friends. You never knew if she'd had a bad day because she ALWAYS had a smile and sincere, "How are you?"

If I had a lapse in judgement, she never criticized me. She just spoke with tenderness and explained the situation differently; I realized my wrong and took her advice. I'm so sad about the circumstances of her passing. However, I know she's waiting to go to heaven. I can imagine the reunion with Marty Ann, Nana, and Popa.

I can hear of them saying, "how about a game of cards or dominos?"

“ We met Jerry and Mary Ann 27 years ago at church. They opened there arms and heart to us including their home. I would laugh when we talked because the first thing she would say, "watch you know." I'd always say not much and we'd laugh. My mom and dad became great friends with them. Jerry was very instrumental in my dad being baptized at 70. Mary Ann I already miss you so much. You always let me cry on your shoulder as well as laugh a lot. I love you. Tell my mom and dad hi for me💕😊

“ Our dear sister in Christ, Mary Ann Moxley, never left her home without her SMILE. She carried it everywhere she went and greeted everyone with her smile.

Bill and I were so blessed to have met Mary Ann and Jerry when we moved here. They were our friend from day one and for 30 years.

We helped each other build our homes together.

Mary Ann was true, faithful, strong Christian lady. She loved the Lord.

Our close friendship ran deeper than the deepest ocean....We had a meaningful,

Joyful, living kindred soul type friebdship.

We loved you so much Mary Ann and will always miss you.

Rest in our Lord arms. You are home now.

In His service, with much love, Bill & Nina. Windham
