“ I wish to extend my condolences to the family of my dear friend Mary. When she and I spoke about three weeks ago, she and I laughed and joked about our good times together through the years. Mary was one of the sweetest, loving Mothers I have ever known. She was intelligent, very hard-working, fun-loving, and oh so proud of her children and grandchildren and great-grandchildren. She purposely gave me the phone numbers of Kathy and Steve, she said she wanted me to have them. Then on the day before she passed, when I phoned, she did answer her cell with a, "hello" and I did get a chance to say to her, "hello" and I told her I loved her..then the nurse took her phone and advised me she was too weak to speak anymore, and to phone back in 15 min and speak to Kathy, which I did. Mary never complained even while she was living here..about her illness..she worked for the Law firm in Monticello and just keep going. I will miss Mary so very much, because of her great zest for living. I am so happy we reconnected, before her passing, and now I know she is in a better place. God Rest Your Soul My Dear Friend.##imported-begin##Marilyn Guida##imported-end##
