“ Linda,
I am sorry for your loss. Many many great times were had at the Reed home. I think I spend 1/2 my childhood there. Your mother was so sweet. Treasure the promise of God's eternal happiness for all of us. Take Care and find strength in God love.

“ Patti, David, Linda, Don, I was so sad when I read about Joanne. Several years ago I talked to her when we were vacationing in Myrtle Beach. It was wonderful to reconnect with her and hear about all of you. I have very fond memories of your mom, the house on High Street and your grandparents house on High Street. Please know you are in my prayers. Cyndi (Cheney) Cianciolo

“ Patti~Just last week, a friend was telling me important your mother was in her life. Be comforted in knowing that she was a big part of the village it takes to raise children.

“ Joanne was like a second mom to me. I spent just as many of my teenage years at Linda's house as I did my own house. There will always be a special place in my heart for Jo and the rest of the Reed family. Love to you all and know my prayers and thoughts are with you. She was a wonderful person and will be missed dearly.
