“ Fielder, our thoughts and prayers are with you and Wilson at this time of your great loss. We have pleasant memories of our visits with you and Stelline in your home at Surfside Beach a few years back, as we recalled life around Rice, farming, the tobacco business, and people we all knew. “ Hello Fielder and Wilson, Many thoughts and words of love are coming your way today from your friends and family in the Rice and Farmville areas. Fielder, you have given Stelline a lifetime of compassionate care, especially during her time of difficulties. Surely she has taken that compassion with her; and even though she is no longer present with you physically, you will never be separated from her in your heart of love. With great love, Bobbi##imported-begin##Bobbi Morgan##imported-end##
