

Mary Victoria Kelpish

November 3, 2008

Mary Clementina Majkut Kelpish, 94 of Heritage Plantation died Monday, November 3, 2008 following a long illness at Grand Strand Regional Medical Center. Born in Tauton, Massachusetts, she was the daughter of the late Joseph and Mary Majkut. She was a retired beautician and had owned and operated the Charm Beauty Shoppe in London, CT for forty years. Mrs. Kelpish was a graduate of Hartford Academy of Hairdressing and the Robert Fiance School of Advanced Hair Styling. She was always interested in maintaining her professional growth and as a result, Mary was a frequent participant in many hairdressing conventions and shows. Mary's business activities did not keep her away from her love of gardening. Her garden was always filled with ever blooming flowers, roses and blueberries which she laughingly shared with the birds, saying they always left her just enough berries so she could bake a pie. Her husband, Martin Julius Kelpish, brothers, John, Stanley and Walter Majkut and a son in law, Dr. Lewis Stallworth, III preceded her in death. Surviving are daughter, Elaine Stallworth of Pawleys Island, SC ; granddaughters, Attorney Deirdre Stallworth of Drexel Hill, PA and Michelle Saporito and husband Guy of Waterford, CT and two great grandchildren, Anthony and Angela Saporito. In lieu of flowers, memorials may be made to Ark Animal Hospital, 1011 6th Ave. North, Myrtle Beach, SC 29577. Services will be 5:15 PM, Tuesday at Eagle Crest Assisting Living, 3736 Robert Grissom Parkway, Myrtle Beach, SC.
