“ I was truly blessed the day I met Mary, which was many years ago. She was a breath of fresh air and quite the special lady that had a whole lot of spunk and a lot to say to make us all laugh. I loved her very much and will miss her deeply. She was such a special lady.

“ Many condolences to all members of the Wilkinson family. We only met Mary when she and Anne could travel to Texas. Mary always appeared to love life. I know through John and Toni that Mary's health had deteriorated over the years. May the memories of happy times bring comfort to the saddened hearts left behind. Mary's love will always be in you heart. It is this love that will someday bring peace.
I know that Mary will be deeply missed. She is now your guardian angle. Free from all adversities life can bring. Mary is in God's embrace. Our deepest and heartfelt sympathy. Mike--Marlo(Renn)--Melanie Taylor

“ My memories are so wonderful !

I met Anne and her Mom, Mary, and Anne's Dad, Reggie, when I was two years old. Anne was only one year old ! Anne and I loved visiting each other for overnights ! Mary sure kept us laughing and Anne and I sure kept Mary on her toes ! I loved hearing Mary laugh right up to a few weeks ago. Anne, you are the best daughter any mother could ever ask for. Mary was blessed and so was I.

“ Oh what memories! Whether we were in Albuquerque insisting Mary be allowed to order from the child's menu; or in Santa Fe buying turquoise earrings; or sitting in my room in Seattle or San Diego enjoying the treats from gift baskets or the conciege's lounge, Mary was there to join in the fun. We tried to visit Myrtle Beach at least once a year to celebrate Lama and Mary's birthdays. She loved having a Manhattan. Our last visit we introduced her to solar decorations. Loved hearing her stories and her excitement on where to go and what to do. What a blessing to have known her.

“ I sat with Mary many times over the past year, played cards with her, shared many a laugh and enjoyed her company so much! I will miss her sense of humor and her sweet smile. May God welcome her into His kingdom, and may she enjoy a good glass of wine!!
