“ I am just today learning of your loss. I am sorry to hear about Mary's passing. Losing a mother is always hard and never at a good time. May God give you strength as He walks this journey of grief and loss with each of you.

“ ”Mom” had her own special way of doing things. She loved life, her flowers, the birds, and most of all her family and friends. Thinking of you all and praying you find peace in knowing she is in her eternal home with family and friends and working in the flower gardens of heaven. Love to all.
