“ Tommy, Ginger, Thomas, Hunter, Shelley, Ginny, Davis, Taylor, and Luke,

I would like to express my deepest sympathies upon hearing about Matt. Few people could light up a room with a smile and a kind-hearted demeanor like Matt had. With an inquisitive mind and an adventurous heart, he was a role model to friends and family alike. The Bible says "In my Father's house are many mansions: if it were not so, I would have told you. I go to prepare a place for you." We can take comfort in the fact that Matt is in his Father's house, in a place that was already prepared for him by Christ. I love you all and will keep each one of you in my prayers.

With deepest sympathy,

Matt Anderson

Thank you for sharing this Matt. I do know he's in a much better place. We all have to keep reminding each other of this. I know that all of you Andersons have been praying. Knowing this has meant alot to my family. We included Elizabeth's words in the service and I know they came from all of you.

*Thank you,
Shelley*

“ Matt, your life was not long enough but you lived the years you had with more zeal and compassion than anyone I know. Your huge heart is missed by so many right now. I've never hurt this bad. We know you're in a better place, but it doesn't stop this pain. You are always in my heart. The memories we shared are helping to fill this hole I now have. I love you little brother.

*"God goes out to his garden and picks the nicest flower he sees."

Hunter, Shelley, Thomas, Tommy, Ginger, and all the family, I can only imagine the heartbreaking pain that you all have been thrust into. My thoughts and prayers are with you now and in the days ahead. Hunter, I learned to love and respect you and your family during the years we worked together beginning when you were just a young teenager.. It was my pleasure for several years to watch you grow into a wonderful young man. I remember Matthew as being an impressive, polite, young guy also. Although I have not seen you in a few years, I still think of you often. I pray all of you will be comforted by God's love which he shows to us through good memories, good friends and family, and through His Spirit that dwells within you.
