“ Dearest Eileen,

We are so sorry for your loss. Your mother was a beautiful woman. We are so glad for the friendship we shared. We have many fond memories of the many times at your home where we together watched and rooted for our beloved NY Giants. We were always grateful that Maureen enjoyed Thanksgiving dinner with us at our home surrounded by family and friends. The gorgeous Christmas Catcus she gave us a couple of years ago is thriving. It blooms not only at Christmas time, but also several times throughout the year.

We will miss your mom and will hold precious the memories of our friendship. And when it's time once again to root for a Big Blue win, she will be right there with us.

Rest in peace, our dear friend.
