

Maurice DiPierro

April 3, 1939 - November 23, 2025

Maurice DiPierro, 86, passed away on Sunday, November 23, 2025. He was born on April 3, 1939 in Brooklyn, New York, to parents Antonio DiPierro and Antonia Castellano.

Moe was a truly special man, lovable, loyal, and deeply family oriented with everything he did. As a Detective with the NYPD, he served his community with pride, courage, and dedication, always putting others before himself. To his family, he was so much more than a badge and a title. He was a great husband who loved his wife dearly. He was an amazing father, grandpa, and great grandpa and best friend. He had a heart of gold and the strength that carried him through life's toughest moments. No matter what life threw his way, he would simply say "it is what it is" and face it with calm, courage, and dignity. He taught his family the value of family, loyalty, and to never give up on those you love. He may not be here in person, but his smile, laughter, and spirit will stay with his family forever. "We will carry him in our hearts always." Mr. DiPierro is survived by his loving wife, Mary Lucy Giglio DiPierro; brother, Gus DiPierro (Jean); children, Anthony (Arlene), Angelo (Michelle), Mark (Corinne); grandchildren, Nicole (Andrew), Angela (Colby), Daniela, Stephanie, Jenna, Deanna, Julia, Mark; great grandchildren, Mason, Nolan, Camden.

He is predeceased by his parents Antonio John DiPierro and Antonia Castellano.
