“ My sincerest condolence to you Sandy and the rest of your family. It's been years since we've seen one another, however I still hold fond memories of Moe at Uncle Leo and Aunt Lucienne's camp. I'm praying that you find strength in knowing that Moe is at peace after years of suffering. May you find solace in your continued journey with your children and grandchildren. God Bless and keep you in His care. Love, Ron##imported-begin##Ron Roux##imported-end##

“ Dear Sandy and family, As part of a lifetime, our time with you and Moe was very brief. But it was such a positive and memorable experience we are truly saddened to hear that Moe has passed on. During his government service he significantly contributed to the well being of our nation. He also was known for being loyal and loving to his family and friends. Nancy and I extend our sincere condolences to you and your family. Sincerely, Tom & Nancy Schulz##imported-begin##Tom & Nancy Schulz##imported-end##
