Pawleys Island.....

Mavis (Stevenson) Willis went to be with the Lord on December 18th. She was born on April 10, 1938 in Belfast, Northern Ireland, the youngest daughter of Belfast Fire Station Officer James and Mary Jane (May) Stevenson.

Mavis was the loving wife of the late Aaron Willis for 60 wonderful years. They came to the United States in 1958 and resided in New Jersey raising their loving family and then retired to Pawleys Island, SC, living out their golden years in a beautiful community full of friends who became true family.

Mavis will be deeply missed by her daughter, Glenna Ramsey, husband Jason Ramsey, cherished grandchildren Trevor and Maya Ramsey who she adored, loving daughter Jacqueline Willis and partner Bill Strohm and many dear family and friends here and overseas.

“ I am so sorry to hear about the passing of Aunt Mavis. I have some nice memories of her when she came to Belfast and Orlando. She was such a kind and lovely woman and will be missed so much by everyone.

We will be thinking of Aunt Mavis, Glenna, Jacqueline and the rest of the family during this sad time.

Love from the Belfast Family,

“ I am so greatly saddened. I was music teacher to Jacqueline and Glenna, when they were in elementary school - Jackie sang in my high school choir, and Mavis and Aaron treated me like family for 30 years. We were all separated by miles and years, but the connection was always there. My violinist and I had the honor and pleasure of playing for both girls' weddings. She was a loving, faithful and devoted wife and mother, and my consolation at this sad time is that she is reunited with her husband of over 60 years, a remarkable achievement in our current era of insanity.

My heart, my love, and my prayers go out to the family.
May God bless and comfort you all. ❤️
