“ I remember well the times at Uncle Roy's house interacting with Max as well as his siblings, then the occasional times at max's place by the lake then one last time at the café near the Potsdam ,NY airport several years ago. Time slips by awfully fast but I will always have those memories while continuing this adventure called life! I can only hope Maxie's family can find some comfort in knowing he, for the most part, traveled well in this cycle of life. John Barney

“ So fortunate to have known such a generous man. He touched everyone he came in contact with. Always so sweet and full of happiness, compliments, anything he could do or say to make people smile. Will be dearly missed...Brenda Snyder (Winney)

“ Dear Myra and family,

It was our good fortune to have Max next door for four summers. He was a good friend and neighbor and as he would say he truly became family. We will miss him greatly.
