“ Peggy and family, it is with a heavy heart that I convey my deepest and heartfelt sympathies in the passing of Max. Max was such a nice and sweet person, always very thoughtful of others. I have fond memories of our time working together at SofTest .

Just the other day I was telling my husband of the incident which max had with a vacuum cleaner salesman, the vacuum cleaner demonstrated did not work after the salesman threw sand on your carpet and how Max told the salesman to pick up the mess because you would be coming home from getting your hair done and you would not be happy....we laughed. Max told the story making us all laugh.

May your beloved Max Rest In Peace!
