“ Growing up, my brother Henry and I enjoyed working for Maxine for many summers at Murrell's Inlet where my parents have a summer home. Maxine went to USC with the famous artist, Jasper Johns, and they were friends. I mentioned this once to him when I lived in Manhattan and met him for the first time. He enjoyed talking about Maxine and South Carolina. Willson Powell##imported-begin##Willson Powell##imported-end##

“ I was priviledged to get to know Maxine when we worked for Gtown Co. I knew of her for many years and as owner of Olivers Lodge. My memory of her will always be her art and in particular a drawing of daffodils. The flower of Spring. I pray that you are at rest in the most beautiful garden of flowers and animals in God's Heaven.##imported-begin##Katie M. Brown##imported-end##

“ I have spent so much time thinking of Aunt Maxine and wanting to sit with her and talk to find out about her memories, her life and who she really was. She was my link to my extended family that I feel a great pain to lose. It is my deep regret that I did not make a better effort to communicate with her and tell her how much love and respect I have for her. What will always be remembered is the image of strength that she portrayed in my mind. To me she was a strong and loving woman with wonderful artistic talent who loved the beauty and simplicity of the Inlet as her art portrayed. She will always live in my mind with her smile and warmth as a symbol of peace and contentment from someone who pursued her dreams and took the challenges and changes in life always adapting, but staying true to herself and what she wanted out of life. The world was somehow better knowing she was there.##imported-begin##Robin Hawkins##imported-end##

“ I have the fondest memories of my childhood. Visiting her and Uncle Nick at the lodge, making pottery at the ceramic shop, going with her to the horse stables. Aunt Maxine was always very kind and loving to me. Even though we lost touch she has always and will always be in my heart.##imported-begin##Marjory Hawkins##imported-end##
