“ I just wanted to tell everyone that melissa was a strong person. I will always try to be as strong as her. She was my sister but more than that she was my best frind and I am so proud of her for the fight she gave this past year. As every one knows that I loved her so much and I pray she new this. I will always remember her big brown eyes rosie checks and a butiful smill that I saw. I loved to here her laugh. I hope that every one will remember the amazing love she had for life, her family and friends. she brought joy to everyone she knew and she tould me that everyone loved her and she was right. I want to thank everyone for the support they have given us through this heart breaking time. love always Amy Rodmaker##imported-begin##AMY RODMAKER sister##imported-end##
