“ My mother, Ann Fulghum, lived next door to Melvin for 2 years before she passed away. Mom and Melvin became good friends. I appreciated Melvin so much. My whole family got to know him and all of us fell in love with him. He and Mom planted all kinds of flowers in the front yard. When Mom died, I left Melvin the rabbit statue in front of his condo to remember Mom. Please, either take the rabbit statue home as a reminder of Melvin and Mom's special friendship or put it in Mom and Melvin's little side garden at the back of her condo. I bet they are planting flowers in heaven right now. Melvin will be missed. I will not be able to attend the service but my thoughts and prayers are with you. `###imported-begin###Dona Ducker###imported-end###`
