

Merlin G. Cannon

July 12, 2004

Merlin McKenzie Cannon, age 70, wife of the late James Waldon Cannon, of Pioneer Road, died Monday, July 12, 2004 at Loris Community Hospital. Mrs. Cannon was born in Dillon, a daughter of the late Willis Clarence and Dorethia Hilburn McKenzie. She was a member of New Home Baptist Church #1 and retired from Conway Mills MFG. Mrs. Cannon was a loving mother and was loved by all that knew her. Surviving are one daughter, Sandra C. Boyd and her husband Terry of Conway; one son, Randy James Cannon and his wife Mary G. of Loris; one sister Vereia England of Columbia and one brother D.T. McKenzie of North Charleston; three grandchildren, Crystal Cannon, Mary Boyd and Jimmy Cannon. Funeral services will be held 2:00 PM Wednesday from New Home Baptist Church #1 with Rev. Roger Chestnut officiating. Burial will follow in the Church Cemetery, directed by Goldfinch Funeral Home, Conway Chapel. The family will receive friends from 6-8 PM Tuesday at the funeral home.

Tribute Wall

“ Dear Aunt Merlin , You were always a favorite with me . We always knew we were welcome . Mama is going to miss you so much As I am sure everyone will . Sandra and Randy will always have the loving memories to hold on to .And it will carry them thru these hard days. You will never be forgotten . I am sure Heaven is shining just a little brighter now because of your smile . And you always had a beautiful smile . We love and miss you , Kathy , Alan, Vera, Art & Family##imported-begin##Kathy Sadler##imported-end##

---

July 15, 2004 at 12:00 AM

“ Aunt Merlin, you've been such a blessing to everyone you've touched. The world is surely a bit dimmer without the light of your smile. We'll forever miss your humor, attitude, and those mischievious dimples. We'll be reminded of you with every sunrise and sunset. When you see Mama, give her a hug for me and know that I love you both very much. Thank you for being you.##imported-begin##Diana Collins##imported-end##

---

July 13, 2004 at 12:00 AM