

Rev. Michael Alec Black

June 9, 1957 - December 29, 2023

Rev. Michael Alec Black of Myrtle Beach passed away Friday December 29 in Myrtle Beach. Mike was a retired United Methodist minister who devoted his life to ministry and the spiritual teaching and care of others.

A Religion major at Wofford, Mike went on to Duke Divinity School and received his Master of Divinity Degree. He then entered USC where he earned a Master of Mass Communication Degree. Mike specialized in documentary and architectural photography as well as audio and video production. In addition, Mike taught studio music production and photography at USC.

Mike was the Pastor at numerous United Methodist Conference churches in South Carolina. He was an experienced internet designer and enjoyed incorporating multimedia into his real estate listing and marketing materials. Mike enjoyed outdoor activities, including paddling his canoe on the Waccamaw River, and most recently recreational drone photography.

Mike was a gifted musician and enjoyed playing his beloved Martin Herringbone, writing and recording music, as well as restoring vintage amplifiers, guitars, lap steel guitars, antique radios, and resophonic guitars.

Mike is survived by his wife of 32 years Nadia Rasheed Black and by his parents, T. Alec Black and Jamie Dusenbury Black. He was predeceased by his maternal grandparents, James Monroe and Lily Faye Dusenbury.

“ Dear Nadia and Mr and Mrs Black, Holly and I are saddened to hear of Mike’s death. He and I were at Wofford where we both sang in the Glee Club. I remember staying at the Black’s on a spring tour stop in MB. Mike’s knowledge of just about everything was astounding. While we were in touch only sporadically, he was never far from my heart.

“ Dear Nadia and Mr. and Mrs. Black, I am so sorry to hear of Mike's passing. He was the first friend I made after my family moved to MB in 1968 and we remained close in middle and high school. He was so talented playing the guitar and lived a life with many varied interests, but the UMC always seemed to be at the heart of it. Please accept my deepest sympathies and hope you find a measure of peace in this time of sorrow.

“ Nadia, and the entire Black family, I wish to convey my deepest sympathy as we recognize the passing of Mike Black. He and I were good friends and worked together for many years. He was so knowledgeable about musical instruments that I always went to him first for information. We shared similar interests in musical styles and communicated regularly about many artists, new and old. Due to his big heart, knowledge of instruments and an awareness of my needs, he was key to selecting a guitar that our company gave me as a retirement gift. The picture here, is Mike and I at my retirement party as we played "Key to the Highway". I think of him every time I pick up any guitar, but strumming this one is poignant, sad and uplifting at the same time. I will miss him terribly and cherish the memories we shared. May he rest in peace and may you find peace and comfort in the life he lived and the friendships he helped create.

Dear Nadia and Mr. & Mrs. Black, I was very sad to hear of Mikes passing. I was friends with Mike in High School. We were a part of a Theatre Group called G-74. He introduced me to music that they didn't play on the radio. The summer before he went to Wofford, he worked down near the Gay Dolphin and I lived 3 blocks away. I went and bothered him a lot. I am sure he thought I was silly, but he was always nice to me. He wrote me a few times when he was at Wofford and I still have those letters. My thoughts and prayers are with you.

Dear Nadia and Mr. and Mrs. Black, please accept my sincere sorrow in hearing of Mike's passing. I worked with him at Coldwell Banker and always enjoyed our time together. He was friendly, caring and generous; a good man. He surprised me multiple times by gifting me with an old CD he found of my favorite singers. I will remember him each time I play them. God bless and keep you.
