“ We are so saddened by the loss of this young man. Even though we didn't know Michael, knowing his family, we are sure he was a fine young man, and we are very sad for everyone. It's so hard to lose a family member, especially so suddenly. It's a comfort to have the resurrection hope, and know that Jehovah is near to all those broken at heart. You are all in our prayers. “ Dear Beloved Family: I am so sorry for your loss. May ‘the God of comfort’ console you during this time of sorrow (2 Corinthians 1:3, 4). The death of a loved one, especially one so young, is the most difficult experience to bear. This is a sorrow that Jehovah God himself will one day remove-(Revelation 21:3-5). He has promised through His son, Jesus, that there is going to be a resurrection (John 5:25, 26, 28, and 29; John 11:24, 25), which is the only real remedy for mournful tears. May God’s promise can give you real hope and can help you to cope until you see your beloved, Michael again. You have my deepest sympathy.##imported-begin##Tammy Johnson##imported-end##

“ I don't think I could ever recall a time when Michael ever complained. I have worked alongside Michael in the scorching summer heat and he never once complained. It didn't matter if he was helping his granddad muck the horse stalls, laying sod, irrigating a customer's yard or helping us put up 300 bales of hay; Michael gave 100% every time. I enjoyed sharing a meal now and then with him and a conversation too. I will miss Michael's shy grin and his easy-going nature. God bless the Causey family.##imported-begin##Darlene McCourry##imported-end##
