“ Dear Beverly, Maria and Family, On behalf of your Aunt Bernice Sparks, (Your Uncle Stan's wife) cousins Iva, Loretta, Mary, Terry, Don and myself, (Reenie) our thoughts and prayers are with you. Recently Uncle Mike had been heavy on my heart and I was hoping to make a surprise visit to see him and all of you within the next week or so. We all have such fond childhood memories ....hmmm, seems like only yesterday. We all wish we could be present with you; fortunately there is no distance in the Spirit. Our love and prayers go out to you. We know you are left putting the pieces together but believe Uncle Mike is dancing with Jesus and seeing many family members that went on before him. We miss you much and love you more the Sparks family!##imported-begin##Maureen Thone nee Reenie Sparks##imported-end##

“ Dear Beverley and Maria, the most heartfelt prayers go out to the both of you at this time, from the entire Gardabie family on the sad loss of our dearest brother and uncle, Michael. I(Timothy) have very fond memories of Uncle Mike from my childhood as well as you Beverley, John and Aunt Mavis. We were all so sadden by the previous lost of John and Aunt Mavis, and now Michael. I was so upset that I missed Uncle Mike and meeting you Maria when you both came to see my mother, your Aunt Gloria before she passed away. It sad that living in different parts of the country has left us with only fond memories of each other. Yet rest assured that Uncle Mike is remembered well back at his childhood home. All of our hearts go out to you here Beverley and Maria, as well as our prayers. The very best futures to you both, and rest peacefully knowing that your father was a good man, that is remembered well and now rest in the arms of our most loving Savior. With heavy hearts for your lost, Uncle John, Timothy, John Joseph, Julie and Daniel Gardabie###imported-begin###Timothy Allen Gardabie###imported-end###
