“ Dustin came into our lives through my friend, Gina--his sister-in-law. He wanted to talk to my twin boys (15), one of which was making poor choices involving school/drugs. We sat at Gina's kitchen table and listened to Dustin's story. He honestly had this unique way of relating to young people. He was so inspiring. Dustin was a courageous, Christian man who I will never forget. His influence will live on in the lives of many people--teens and adults like me. “ Mr and Ms. Reece, my name is Dianne Blackmon-Hardee and I am a member of the Promise Land Church. I have been going there for about 3 years now. I am the mother of Nick Blackmon the lead guitar player in the band. I am sure Dustin mentioned Nick's name at sometime when talking with you. Well Nick my son thought the world of Dustin and I loved Dustin too. He was a good young man and he loved God very much and it showed. There isn't one doubt in my mind that Dustin is in heaven. He was so sweet to me and the elders in the church. He was a great teacher to the adults and the young also at the church. I can see his sweet smile as I send you this message. I remember the day he was baptized at the Promise Land pond. He was smiling when he came out of the water. After being baptized he would help baptize many converts from time to time. All I can say about Dustin is he loved God and it showed. He will be greatly missed by me and all the Promise Land members. I attended a baptist church in the Aynor area for many years and Nick asked me to go to the Promise Land he told me how great the ministry was. I went and have been attending ever since that day. I love the teaching there and they teach God's word. I can not imagine the pain you feel. You are in my prayers and don't worry about Dustin he is in the arms of God as we speak. If there is anything I can do for the family just let me know. You should be proud of Dustin he was a great human being. God bless all of his family and my prayers be with you. “ God places people in our lives to reveal his goodness and to encourage us. Dustin will always be that blessing from God to me and I know also for the Students, Professors and Staff here at Fruitland Baptist Bible Institute. Even if it was for a short while, he showed us that there is hope, Dustin impacted many while he was here at Fruitland. To us it seems he got his reward too early, but for God it was just as he planned. We will miss him for a while, but there is a reunion coming. God will sustain us till then.##imported-begin##Bobby Garrett##imported-end##
