“ Ellen,

I learned just yesterday of the death of my friend from Doug Peagler. In all my years in the car business I have never run into anyone that could top Mike's Integrity and genuine concern for his fellow man. He will be sadly missed by this frien. God bless you and your entire family.

“ I'm so sorry for your loss. Please accept my deepest sympathy. May you find comfort from your memories, as well as God's word the bible. Why do people we love die? Romans 5:12 says: "That is why, just as through one man (Adam) sin entered into the world and death through sin, and thus death spread to all men because they had all sinned." How loving of God to promise what is found at Revelation 21:4 which says, "And he will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. The former things have passed away.”

“ How could I share just one memory there are so many from my childhood. He was such a loving and gracious man with a big smile. Growing up with Abbie as my best friend he was like a father, and always gave me fatherly advice. One of my favorite memories was learning to crab in the Inlet at Garden City. Also feeling like a "Big Shot" when Abbie and I were allowed to visit The Rain Day.

“ I am sorry to hear of your loss. The death of a loved one is one of the most devastating experiences a human can face. At times, the loss can seem unbearable. The Bible promises; "God is near to the brokenhearted." It also says: "Throw your burden on God and he will sustain you." (Psalms 34:18 and 55:22) I hope this message will help you cope with the loss of your loved one.
