

Michael Edward McCormack

April 24, 1951 - September 27, 2025

Michael E. (Mac) McCormack, of Conway, South Carolina, passed away on Saturday, September 27, 2025, after a heroic battle with Agent Orange Prostate Cancer. Mac was born in Brooklyn, New York, on April 24, 1951, to parents Muriel R. and Edward J. McCormack.

Surviving him is his wife, Jacqueline Minton McCormack. Jacqueline's strength, love, and courage enabled the best times for the McCormack's. As did the love and support of Jackie's Family during the worst of times.

Mr. McCormack is predeceased by his parents, Edward and Muriel McCormack; and brother Kevin R. McCormack, all of Ridgewood, New York.

Mac was a highly decorated Vietnam Veteran who served in the United States Navy. He completed two tours in South East Asia with Attack Squadron Thirty-five. The bonds of camaraderie birthed in Vietnam sustained to this day. He was awarded the Lifetime Membership in American Legion for his contributions to fostering Americanism while active in the Legion. Mac was a Senate aide to New York State Senator, Martin J. Knorr, State Senate District 15, Queens, New York. Leaving the post when the Senator retired.

Mac was also a former NASCAR Official at Myrtle Beach Speedway. Mac began his racing career at the famed Islip Speedway on NY's Long Island in 1969 and continued his passion for Stock Car Racing until his retirement in.

Moving to Horry County beginning in 1992 was the pinnacle of his journey through life. Mac's love for the ocean and outdoors was a common denominator for all who knew him.
