“ Today June 13th, 2020 I've had Mike on my mind all day and don't know why ... my Wife and I met him At his Restuarant on her birthday Which turned out to be a Labor Day Monday in the early 2000s ..the chalk board special was “ Puds black n blue ribeye” ...I ordered that !!! Absolutely the BEST steak I've ever eaten anywhere including mine ...he came to our table sat down and we talked for hoursneedless to say we became fast friends ...me being from the beach and he knowing many I grew up with ...this began our Journey arriving at his place early and leaving late routinely...the absolute best place we have ever eaten !!! We mlss our Dear friend and his wonderful food !!!
God Bless!!!

I served with Mike in Vietnam. An honorable man. He brought loads of laughs to our group. Mike introduced me to "balled" boiled peanuts. I am from New England never heard if such a thing.
