“ Michael was my best friend in the world. He was the best big brother a person could have. We were very close growing up at 814 Maple Ave. We both lived and loved the outdoors because of the love our parents shared love for the wilderness. As adults we were each others rock when hard times showed their faces. There are no work to describe the loss I feel. I will always think of you brother.

“ Though I only knew Mike for 5 years, I enjoyed working with him and especially loved hearing his stories of his sibling and growing up in the 60s and 70s and also the joy he found in his own daughter and grand children. I am deeply saddened by the loss of Mike. It is a big loss for our company and I am sure for his family and friends, including me. May God bless him and his family and friends during this incredibly difficult time.
