“ I read of your loss and want to express my deepest sympathy. Life can be full of so many unexpected things. But the worse of our problems is Death an enemy of life. Losing a loved one can be devastating, because we have a built-in desire to live and enjoy life with our family and friends. When we lose our loved one, for what ever reasons we may believe, it is distressing, because we miss them very much. At these times, we need encouragement and hope so that we can cope with our lost. For that reason, we can be encouraged by reflecting on the promises that God has given us thru his word the Bible, concerning the resurrection hope of seeing our loved ones again. I hope that you will find comfort in reading these scriptures. John 11:11-44, John 5:21, 28, 29, Acts 24:15 and Revelation 21:3, 4. My prayers are with all.##imported-begin##Karen Cross##imported-end##

“ I've had the pleasure of knowing Mike for the past 5 years or so. We spoke frequently while Mike was working with N.C. Sandhills and we saw each other at golf trade shows in PA & NJ areas each year. I always enjoyed Mike's company and conversations we had. I'm very sorry for your loss and I'm grateful for the opportunity to have known Mike.
