“ *Christy and family,
You are in my thoughts and prayers. I wish I could be there to support you through this tough time, but I will be home as soon as I get the chance. I know this was a shock, but Michelle is in such a better place now. She is looking down and will be your guardian angel, always. I miss her already as she was like a second mother to me. She was always kind, caring, genuine, and so welcoming and understanding. She will be greatly missed, but never forgotten. Love and miss you Michelle Brown. Stay strong, keep smiling, always remember the good, and let me know if there is anything I can do to help.*

“ Dear Uncle Tom, Aunt Linda and Christie, it's hard for me to know what to say at a time like this. I still can't believe this has happened and when I think of Michelle I still remember her as a little girl more so than an adult. After all, that's when I was around her the most when we visited you guys in Wilmington, when I was growing up.

One thing I'm certain of is that she had great parents and a beautiful daughter that I'm sure she was very proud of.

I would ask all of you to please let me know if there is anything Phyllis or I can do during this difficult time. I first thought that we would be able to be there for the service but had forgotten that Phyllis has consultation for surgery and due to her condition she can't change the date. She's going to have surgery on her esophagus which is severely eroded. We are planning to come down next Friday and will see you then.

Until then, please except our deepest condolences.

Love, Zane & Phyllis
